

About Reliance Safety Consultants

We deliver custom tailored risk management solutions based on each client's unique strategic safety goals and objectives.

We believe in empowering employees through safety ownership.

We help you comply with mandated state and federal laws, as well as manage your organization's workforce related risk issues and challenges in safety, by addressing risk at your workplace culture level.

We deliver long-term change and measurable, sustainable shifts in your workplace safety culture.

We offer guidance and help with the answers to the following questions and many more...

- Do I need a written safety program?
- What must my safety program include?
- Does my safety program meet OSHA requirements?
- Am I responsible for providing my employees' safety equipment?
- What constitutes a serious and willful safety violation?
- How do I cost effectively reduce the instances of accidents/injuries in the workplace?
- When and how often do I need to train or re-train my employees?
